HOMECOMING

November 16, 1935

One of the outstanding football teams of the South will come to Bowling Green on November 16 to clash with the Hilltoppers in a climax to Western's all-day Homecoming celebration.

Howard College, which tied the Alabama "Rosebowlers" 7-7 and has swept aside all opposition since, will send its Bulldog clan against Captain Prewitt's men in an effort to erase the memory of last year's upset when Western held them to a 0-0 draw.

Howard's nationally-known record and the fact that the Hilltoppers will be completely "shooting the works" indicate that one of the largest Homecoming crowds in history will gather on College Heights for the event.

A great day, a splendid program, and one of the best football games to be played anywhere in the south this fall promise to make the 1935 Homecoming the most outstanding in Western's history.

Make your plans now to be here. Renew the friendships of the past. Enjoy the fellowship of this great alumni rally. Bring your friends. Come early and stay late.
